

ISDPM Peer Assessment Guidance

Introduction

The peer assessment gives you the chance to evaluate the performance of the people in your group. Please do this form anonymously without discussing with your team. Note: the grade you receive on your peer assessment is not affected by the scores that you give your classmates.

Marking Guidance

Mark	Explanation
10	This group member contributed substantially to the team effort. They provided significant insight and added huge value to almost every part of the project. You are very impressed with them during meetings. You think that their effort will have significantly improved the mark that the group report received. They used their own initiative and supported other group members where appropriate. In summary, you would really want to work with this person again.
9	Give this grade if some the group member displays performance between 10 and 8.
8	This group member contributed significantly to the overall team effort. They gave good insights during the meetings and you were glad to have them there. They used their own initiative in their sections. You think that the project report mark is higher than if they were not in the group. If they could not attend meetings the group member sent in apologies ahead of time with notes to update the rest of the group on their progress. In summary, you would hope to work with this person again.
7	Give this grade if some group member displays performance between 8 and 6.
6	This group member made a very good contribution to the overall team effort. They performed agreed tasks competently, overcoming most issues using their own initiative. In group meetings they were helpful and communicated clearly. If they could not attend meetings the group member sent in apologies as appropriate. In summary, you would be happy to work with this person again.
5	Give this grade if some group member displays performance between 6 and 4.
4	The group member made a satisfactory contribution to their assigned tasks. Generally, they delivered work on time but might have missed a few arranged deadlines without first informing the group. They attended most meetings but might have missed some without first informing the group. In summary, you would not be too worried about working with this person again.
3	Give this grade if some group member displays performance between 4 and 2.
2	Group member did not complete assigned tasks well and missed meetings without informing the group. Although they did do some work which added some benefit to some parts of the project. In summary, you would prefer not to work with this person again.
1,0	Give these grades if you don't feel that the group member achieved enough for 2.